Re: Line Assistant Issue

Dear Mr. Moore:

In an effort to ensure clarity, the Company and Union most recently agreed that if a Line Assistant fails or voluntarily drops out while in the Line Assistant position, during the first 60 days following initial selection, the Company may revisit the original seniority list applicable to the bid at issue and offer the vacant Line Assistant position to the most senior Line Assistant bidder not yet placed.

If the aforementioned is consistent with your understanding please sign an original copy and return to my office.

Sincerely,

Steven E. Williamson
